

Al Qaeda and the Middle East

Al Qaeda's Issues with the West:

Angry that _____ troops are in _____ - this is considered Holy Land for Islam

Angry that _____ supports _____

They are against the _____ concerning _____ after the first Gulf War.

Believe that the _____ actions in the _____ are equal to a

They believe that are _____ Islam because they believe that the _____ is trying to _____.

Political Islam

This is also known as Islamic _____ or _____

Radical Islamists believe that only _____ interpretation of the Qu'ran is _____

They _____ to have this interpretation of Islam be the _____ of all aspects of society

They try to _____ society of all _____ influences

Why do people turn to Radical Islam?

The _____ of other political movements have left many _____ to radical Islam for the _____ to their problems.

Role of Economics

The _____ to _____ in the 1990s have left many people living in _____.

The move to capitalism has _____ the country to more _____, but it has also raised _____ and reduced government _____ for the poor.

People who live in _____ can not _____ for their families search for _____ to provide for their families.

Many terrorist organizations _____ they will provide for their _____.

Many times they actually _____ for the family making the people feel
_____ to the group

The US Involvement in the Middle East: Why are we there?

_____ Interests: Protect _____ interests

_____ Interests: Puts the US in the _____ of _____ in the Middle East

_____ Interests:

- a. Spread _____ throughout the Middle East
- b. Support _____